Scripture

By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence. And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires.

In view of all this, make every effort to respond to God's promises. Supplement your faith with a generous provision of moral excellence, and moral excellence with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with patient endurance, and patient endurance with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love for everyone.

The more you grow like this, the more productive and useful you will be in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. -- 2 Peter 1:3-8 (NLT)

Discussion Questions

1. What are some things in life that aren't measurable?
2. Why do the unmeasurable things tend to be the most important?
3. Who do you know that exudes these qualities? What impact have they made on your life?
4. How do we as individuals grow these unmeasurable qualities in ourselves?
5. How do we as a church make space for valuing these unmeasurable qualities?
