Observing Lent

Lent is the season in the church year during which we prepare ourselves for Easter, typically through prayer, repentance, and some kind of sacrifice. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 1 and lasts about six weeks, culminating on Easter Sunday. The church has traditionally taught that Lent is to be marked by giving up something close to us in order to give ourselves more fully to God.

Here at Middletown Christian Church, we recognize the tremendous value that comes from participating in long-standing church practices that bind us together with Christians around the world. As you might expect, however, we're going to put our own spin on the observation of Lent to maximize the impact it has on each of us.

We'll do this in three ways:

1. For Lent, our theme is "Who Is My Neighbor?" This will be the focus of David's sermon series as well as for some new group offerings (pages 8-9). Read the book and find a group!
2. In addition to a focused sermon series, we'll also encourage everyone to follow the daily readings for each day of Lent. A reading guide for "Who Is My Neighbor?" by Wayne Gordon and daily Bible readings is provided (pages 4-6) to help you spend more intentional time with scripture and with God.
3. We invite our youth and adults to attend the Hear My Story Forums (page 10) where you can learn more about the people you attend church with and possibly expand your understanding of your neighborhood.

Who Is My Neighbor?

A Sermon Series for Lent ... March 12-April 9

This Lent, David will be preaching a series of messages about our neighbors and how Jesus is always enlarging our neighborhood. We'll discover that God will never be any bigger than the size of our neighborhood. "Who Is My Neighbor?" is a series about crossing boundaries to discover God in some surprising places.

A Daily Devotional for Lent

During the 40 days of Lent, we encourage you to start each morning by spending some time alone with God. The process centers around scripture and a corresponding chapter in Wayne Gordon's book Who is My Neighbor? As we journey through Lent together, talk about neighbors, and hear people's stories, these morning devotions will help you prepare for your call by making space for God's voice.

About the Book:

Who Is My Neighbor? Lessons Learned From a Man Left for Dead by Wayne Gordon (ISBN-13 #978-0830757657) is a good resource for conversation. It expands the idea of "neighbor" into 40 easy-to-read chapters, each with a different focus. Chances are, you'll find things you agree with and things you disagree with in this book, and that's great! Enjoy it, wrestle with it, ask questions of it, and let it inform your role as "neighbor" with the people in your life.

How to Use This Guide:

The questions will be the same for each day, but your answers will change based on the subject of the chapter and the scripture. The list of suggested readings is on pages 5-6 of this guide. You may find it helpful to use a notebook alongside this guide so you can record your answers and observations as you go. You may also want to write or highlight key ideas directly in your book.

Listen

- Read the chapter for today. It's short, so take your time. You may even consider reading with a notebook, pen, and highlighter handy.
- Read the scripture passage for today, then consider the following questions.
- In the context of "neighbors," what stands out to you from this passage?
- What is God saying to you about being a neighbor?

Reflect

- What stood out to you in this chapter?
- What questions arose for you as you read?
- How does this chapter connect to today's scripture?
- Where have you seen this kind of need before? What did you do?
- Have you ever been the person with this kind of need? How did that change your perspective?
- How can you be open to this type of neighbor?

Respond

- What action can you take today?
- Take a few minutes to pray. Ask God to open your heart to your neighbors. Offer thanks to God for faithfulness, grace, and love for everyone.
- Be sure to share your story at MiddletownChristian.org/hearmystory or by using #MCCHearMyStory. (See page 11 for more information.)

Share Your Story

Our church-wide goal this year is 1,000 people crossing boundaries to be the message! We hope to hear stories of inspiration throughout the year from everyone that calls Middletown their home. We're called to be the message wherever we live, work, and play and are called out of our comfort zones to embrace people wherever they are.

Already this year we've collected stories of significant impact. Even small stories are big in God's eyes!

- Two church members with very different world views coming together over lunch and finding common ground.
- A longtime friendship with a co-worker who practices a different faith tradition and what that has meant to both of them.
- A young woman crossing the political divide to talk with a family member about why they hold differing beliefs.
- A professor talking to a student of a different faith tradition about her hopes and fears related to recent developments related to immigration.

And we'd like to hear from you! Throughout this series you're challenged to think and learn about your neighbors, either through the lunch challenge or the forums.

How to Share Your Story

- Email David Emery directly at demery@middletownchristian.org if you wish to remain completely anonymous.
- Visit MiddletownChristian.org/hearmystory and fill out a simple form. You may opt to remain anonymous or give permission to share your name with your story.
- Tell your story on social media and use the hashtag #MCCHearMyStory.

Ash Wednesday ... A Meditative Worship Experience

Wednesday, March 1 • 6:00 p.m. • Sanctuary

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, a season of preparation for Christians leading up to Easter. This year, we're celebrating Ash Wednesday as a church through a special worship experience planned and led by our Youth Ministry. With a short, meditative service that includes the imposition of ashes, participants will be encouraged to prepare themselves for Lent and Easter by worshipping together as a family.

Easter FamJam

Saturday, March 26 • 3:00 p.m.

Bring the whole family for a fun, interactive, silly worship experience. It's a new way to hear the story of Easter. There will be music, refreshments, the Easter bunny, and an Easter Egg Hunt. No reservations needed. Donations of candy for eggs appreciated. Contact Amanda O'Mahoney (aomahoney@middletownchristian.org) with questions or to volunteer at the event.

Good Friday Worship Service

Friday, April 14 • 7:00 p.m.

Using the seven last words of Jesus and simple crosses for each participant, this solemn service will dramatically challenge each of us to experience the violent reality of Christ's crucifixion.
