

Takes One to Know One

July 23, 2017

David Emery, Senior Minister

Middletown
CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Scripture

While Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him and he sat down and began to teach them. The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before all of them, they said to him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?” They said this to test him, so that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground. When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. Jesus straightened up and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?” She said, “No one, sir.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again.”

Jesus the Light of the World

Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.”

(John 8:1-12 NRSV)

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever tried to change a bad habit through willpower alone? What happened?
2. Why do you think it's so natural for people to assume that God is quick to judge and condemn them?
3. Which is harder for you to do – asking for forgiveness or forgiving someone who has hurt you?
4. What did you learn about Jesus from this story that help you become the person you want to be?
