Discussion Guide

I SEE A CHURCH

by David Emery

When did church become a building?
When did church become something you go to and then leave?

Take away the buildings and the church will remain.
The church is people.

We see the church everywhere, and we don't even know it.
We see it in unexpected acts of kindness.
In small moments of service and love and grace.

We see church in welcoming smiles and outstretched arms.
The real church is rarely flashy or eye-catching or shiny.

What if we saw church for what it is?
Imperfect, flawed people loving God and loving each other.
Living out the love of Jesus,
embracing people where they are.

What if we dreamed of a church that we could be together?
Let's talk about the church that we want to be.
The church that Christ is calling us to be.
