

HOLY WEEK AT HOME

PRAYER & SCRIPTURE GUIDE

Lean into Holy Week at Home this year. We're reading the Easter story together, one day at a time. Today's reading is Matthew 26:1-16.

"Maundy" [comes] from the Latin mandatum, "command" or "mandate," a reference to the "new commandment" Jesus gives his disciples on the eve of his death: "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another" (John 13:34). Not an abstract or generic "love," then, but a love "just as I have loved you": compassionate and tangible, as simple and strong as kneeling to wash someone's feet and then drying them with a towel (John 13:1-15).

Day 4 of Holy Week at Home: Holy Saturday. Consider taking a walk today in your neighborhood. What are you waiting for God to do? Pray as you walk, telling God what's on your mind.
